Soon, he began losing his eyesight, and within a few months, he couldn't even see the blackboard at school. His teacher sent him home, saying she couldn't teach a blind boy. Ricardo's parents took him to many doctors, but no one could help him. They said he would eventually become completely blind. Ricardo was devastated that he could no longer do the things he loved or even attend school. He felt like he was worth nothing.

Ricardo found a sense of belonging in the club and eventually joined the baptismal class to prepare for baptism. The leader asked everyone to memorize the Ten Commandments, but Ricardo was afraid he couldn't because he couldn't read. However, his mom encouraged him, saying, "God willing, you will be baptized."

NARRATION

CN. 05

Ricardo's sister offered to read the Ten Commandments to him every day, and he worked hard to memorize them. On the day of his baptism, the elder congratulated him on his accomplishment. Soon, Ricardo was asked to tell a mission story at church, but some members were concerned that he would be embarrassed because he couldn't read. However, the Sabbath School leader had faith in Ricardo and asked him if he could do it. Ricardo nodded, and his name was put on the program.

With his sister's help, Ricardo memorized the story, and on Sabbath, he told it with confidence. The church members were amazed and inspired by his courage and determination.

CN. 07

These experiences gave Ricardo the confidence to work for God. Today, he is a university student preparing to become a pastor. He leads a Pathfinder club and preaches in churches around Angola. Dozens of people have given their lives to Jesus after hearing his sermons and testimony.

CN. 08

Ricardo learned that with God's help, he can do anything, even when it seems impossible. Today, as you return the Tithes & Promise, regular and systematic offerings, let's follow Ricardo's example of his faith and dedication to God. May we put our desires last, and God first.
