So, this is what happened: the Romanian police called my father (who is also named Pavel), to the police station. When he gets there, they yell at him "We told you to stop building churches and bringing Bibles into the country!"

My father was bringing Bibles from the former Yugoslavia to Communist- era Romania, all the time. He hid them in the car's double floor. Then the officer said "Now we will shoot you!"

My father, looking into the officer's eyes, said, "Well, to live is an opportunity to serve. It is also a privilege to die for Christ. The next thing I'll see is Christ. The resurrection, for me, is going to be in just a second."

I think the man wasn't expecting that. All he could say was, "You are crazy!"

"Well," said my father, "in order to serve Christ, you need to be crazy, because, you know, it's all contrary to human wisdom. Instead of saving, you give. Instead of being proud, you are humble. It's crazy, but you know, God's craziness is the power God has."

Somehow, the officers just shook their heads and released him, saying "You are crazy".

You know... To be crazy for the world means to be wise for God and to inherit eternal life! And this is the power God has! The world does not understand what we do, but we do it by faith in His Word!

sc. 06

And faithfulness is an evidence that our eyes are fixed far beyond earthly realities!

Faithfulness in marriage, faithfulness to the Sabbath, to return tithe and give Promise—all these behaviors are contrary to our natural impulses and tendencies.

sc. 07

As you return your tithe and give your Promise, ask the Lord to make you crazy for the world and wise for Him! Be a partaker in building His kingdom and saving others!

sc. 08

May we put our desires last and God first.
